TUCSON MAN CLAIMS FABLED ESTATE OF DRAKE

TRACES HIS DESCENT DIRECT FROM FAMILY OF ENGLISH
ADMIRAL

FRANCIS ALFRED DRAKE WILL VIGOROUSLY PUSH HIS CLAIM TO MILLIONS

Property Held in Trust by the English Government—Search of Centuries for Heirs Unsuccessful—Tucson Man Confident of being rightful Owner.

TUCSON, October 27.—A major portion of an English estate valued in the millions, is what Francis Alfred Drake of East Eighth street in this city, is convinced he is entitled to.

His belief and his expectations of a big fortune are based on extensive researches which he has made in his family history and which have been made also by a Boston corporation interested in discovering heirs to the millions in the estate of the celebrated English admiral, Sir Francis Drake, who was the greatest sea fighter of the sixteenth century.

Mr. Drake stated that he had just come into authoritative information which shows definitely that he is the oldest son in family line of oldest sons in direct descent from Sir Francis Drake, who died in the West Indies while on a sea cruise in 1595.

Admiral Drake left an estate valued at more than a million dollars. His heirs had left England and had become widely scattered. Strange as it may seem, none who put in claims for the estate later were able to absolutely establish their claims and consequently the estate, held in trust by the English government until the rightful heirs shall appear, has grown into several millions through the centuries.

So prominent has this search become for the rightful Drake heirs that it has attracted general attention on both the European and American continents.

In 1870 a number of persons who claimed to be Drake heirs, assembled in Washington and retained Judah Benjamin, one of the most celebrated attorneys in America at the time, to push their claims. He was retained at a big salary and was sent to England to attend to the matter. For some reason, however, nothing could be done at that time.

With the estate grown to gigantic proportions agencies have been established in many of the larger cities to search for Drake heirs and a corporation in Boston was organized for the express purpose of looking into the family history of all persons whose name is Drake.

The corporation has investigated Mr.
Drake's family history. It discovered the Drakes settled in Connecticut and later in New York. It found out also that Mr. Drake had lived in Denison, Texas, about thirty years ago. He had gone there from Dunkirk, New York, where his father and grandfather had resided. The Boston corporation in its communication to Mr. Drake states that it has traced his family history directly back to Sir Francis Drake.

Mr. Drake states that he will immediately take the matter up with the Boston company and press his claim for his portion of the wealthy English estate.

TWELVE MEN FROM BISBEE FORM COMPANY TO COLONIZE
SECTION OF SISTER REPUBLIC

BISBEE, Oct. 27.—Twelve Bisbeeites have formed a company to take in land in the southern part of Mexico. An excursion is being instituted from Phoenix to the region to be thrown open to settlers, and another excursion to the same place is on from Kansas City. A company of the latter city is endeavoring to colonize the district in question, where it holds 500,000 acres. The land is said to be very fertile, being especially rich for the growth of rubber trees, yielding two crops of corn yearly, and containing abundance of oranges, the latter growing wild. The minimum rainfall is 53 inches, the maximum 101 inches. The excursionists are expected to reach there about the 13th. Sam Hatfield is representing the Bisbee people who intend to take up from 160 to 840 acres each.
